Property Description

Located on the front line of an old fishing village, this characterful stone house offers a breathtaking view of the Garonne. It has managed to preserve its historic past and its authentic spirit, with interior woodwork, fireplaces and old parquet floors.

A flight of steps leads to a terrace of more than 20 sqm facing south. The entrance opens onto a beautiful living room of 60 sqm including a living room, a dining room, and a fully equipped independent kitchen. This space benefits from great light thanks to the numerous openings opening onto the outside. A large veranda of 30 sqm, converted into a winter garden, allows you to enjoy the sun's rays at any time of the year. A technical room, a WC and storage space complete this level, offering direct access to a comfortable garden, rare in the area. Upstairs, a large bedroom of 44 sqm with a view of the Garonne and a dressing area of 13 sqm which can be transformed into an office or bedroom. A passageway provides access to the bathroom with shower and bathtub, a second bedroom and a toilet. A third bedroom is on the mezzanine. A 30 sqm cellar, attached to the house, can be completely rehabilitated in order to enlarge the living spaces.

The character of this house and its exceptional location make it a very rare property on the outskirts of Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
