Property Description

A stone's throw from the iconic Rue Notre Dame, this stone house is located on the second line of a small condominium, offering a country feel in the heart of the city.

Access to the house is via the terraced and planted garden of 60m<sup>2</sup>. A beautiful exterior stone staircase gives access to the living area, composed of a living room and a kitchen-dining room, separated by a functional fireplace. Contemporary materials combine elegantly with the preserved charm of the old.

A separate office completes this level. A first sleeping area located on the garden level is made up of two large bedrooms with dressing rooms, a bathroom, a laundry room and storage space. A second sleeping area upstairs offers a second bathroom, two bedrooms and an office space.

This sublime, unusual house enjoys exceptional calm and sunshine, like an oasis with a country feel in the heart of the city, a stone's throw from the heart of Chartrons, the quays, transport, schools and shops. .

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
