Property Description

This rural property is situated in the heart of the Double Forest, a 20-minute drive from Ribérac, Dordogne. It features a south-facing country house with 190 sq.m of living space across two levels, offering the potential to create a gite. The ground floor includes a spacious living room, a semi-open kitchen, and a separate toilet.

On the upper floor, you'll find 3 bedrooms and 2 bathrooms.

Additionally, there is an adjoining and communicating living room-kitchen, an office, a bathroom, and a separate toilet. The property also includes a laundry-boiler room, a wine cellar, and a garage with a concrete floor in the annexe. The property has undergone overall renovations of good quality, creating a pleasant living environment.

Outside, there is an indoor swimming pool and an agricultural shed. The property spans a 38-hectare plot, consisting of 30 hectares of wood and 8 hectares of meadow. The garage has the potential to be renovated into an additional cottage or independent accommodation, while the land could be sold to local cattle owners.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of ours agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
