Property Description

Ecological house built in 2011, inspired by the style of old tobacco drying sheds, located just 2 minutes from all amenities. Set in 3280 m² of wooded grounds, this unique property combines rustic charm with modern energy efficiency.

On the first floor, you'll discover a spacious living room of almost 40 m², bathed in natural light and opening onto a 40 m² wooden terrace, ideal for enjoying fine weather. A laundry room equipped with a solar water heater, a bedroom and a shower room with toilet enable you to live on one level in optimum comfort.

Upstairs, the house offers three additional bedrooms and a second shower room with toilet, perfectly suited to the needs of a family.

The house is distinguished by its environmentally-friendly design: excellent insulation (25 cm of cellulose wadding), double-glazing and a 5 m³ rainwater recovery tank. A workshop completes the ensemble, providing a versatile space for DIY or storage.

This property is a rare opportunity for those looking for a house combining traditional charm and ecological modernity. Don't delay in visiting it to discover all it has to offer.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
