Property Description

Contemporary house in a quiet location, offering a perfect combination of modernity and tranquility, in the immediate vicinity of a charming artists' village. This ultra-modern 113 m² home boasts a sleek design and high-quality features.

The spacious living room is the heart of the home, with a large bay window flooding the space with natural light and offering views of the surrounding countryside. Two comfortable bedrooms, shower room and toilet.

The house is designed with particular attention to energy efficiency: flat roof, excellent insulation, wood-fired heating for optimum comfort in winter, and thermodynamic water heater for year-round energy savings.

A garden shed completes this property, offering practical storage space.

Don't miss this unique opportunity to live in a modern, comfortable home in the heart of a natural setting.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
