Property Description

Set in the heart of the picturesque village of Paunat, overlooking its abbey, this mansion is unlike any other. Anchored to the hillside, it has a rectangular floor plan and a gable roof with large chimney stacks on each gable. 2 millstones bear witness to its history, perhaps an outpost of the ancient fortified castle whose ruins are nearby...

It has 3 stories with, on the ground floor: entrance hall, bedroom, shower room, wc, lounge/bedroom with fireplace. On the garden level, 2 beautiful rooms of 40m² each: Kitchen/dining room with stone souillarde, wc, storeroom, sitting room with monumental fireplace and souillarde. 2 mullioned windows offer a lovely view of this authentic village. First floor: spacious bedroom, certainly needs to be partitioned to optimise the number of bedrooms, shower room.

Between the house and the barn is a large covered terrace with uninterrupted views. The barn is used as a cellar, workshop and garage, with a large bedroom and shower room above for family or friends (the access staircase could be improved). Garden shed, one-room cottage slightly separated in the garden. 1600m² of terraced, low stone walls at the rear of the house add to the charm of the property.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
