Property Description

Old stone property, approx 210m2, restored and extended using quality materials combining the charm of the past with modern comforts, terracotta floor tiles, beams, stone, fireplaces, spacious rooms and 3 fireplaces add the charm of country houses.

It spans two levels with a vast entrance hall, wc, large fitted kitchen, dining room, lounge, study, utility room and boiler room. Upstairs are 3 bedrooms with en suite shower rooms.

More than 4 hectares protect the property. The house is surrounded by an enclosed courtyard with access via a porch and wrought iron gate. Part of the grounds are enclosed and surrounded by attractive woodland. A shady path leads to a well-kept undergrowth area where you can relax, have lunch, read and probably come across a deer or a fox. A large meadow slopes slowly down to the valley, with a small stream running through it. Old stone quarries are accessible and could accommodate workshops, garages, etc. Situated between two market towns with all amenities, including Le Bugue, through which the Vézère flows.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
