Property Description

Located on the emblematic Quai des Chartrons, this elegant 108 sqm apartment is located in a sumptuous stone building on the first floor, sheltered from noise, thanks to its rear-facing orientation.

Spread over two levels, the apartment welcomes you with a charming entrance hallway leading to a shower room and toilet. You will immediately be seduced by the vast living room bathed in natural light, offering an impressive double-height ceiling, enhanced by solid wood parquet flooring and exposed beams, bringing a unique character.

A separate, fully equipped kitchen completes this level. The numerous windows illuminate the space and open onto a large private 36 sqm terrace, offering an unobstructed view, ideal for enjoying moments of relaxation outdoors.

Upstairs, you will discover two comfortable bedrooms as well as a large multipurpose space, perfect for setting up an office, a games room or even a reading corner.

This rare property elegantly combines charm and modernity, and benefits from a privileged location in the immediate vicinity of shops, restaurants and transport, perfectly embodying the sought-after spirit of the Chartrons district.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
