Property Description

Ideally located on the sought-after Cours de Verdun, in a luxury condominium, this 105 sqm apartment occupies the top floor and benefits from a private elevator leading directly to a superb 35 sqm terrace.

Unique on the third and top floor, this apartment is served by a private elevator, offering exclusive access to a west-facing terrace, not overlooked, ideal for moments of relaxation in complete privacy. The living room, spacious and bathed in light, seduces with its double-height ceilings and its authentic character, highlighted by preserved old elements such as exposed beams, the period fireplace and the solid wood parquet flooring. Two large bedrooms of approximately 15 sqm each have their own private bathroom, ensuring comfort and privacy.

A third bedroom can be fitted out according to the needs of its future owners.

The exceptional location, the high-quality services and the rarity of a terrace without vis-à-vis make this apartment an exceptional property which combines all the advantages of an exclusive living space.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
