Property Description

This characterful property offers the convenience of a modern finish throughout. The property has four good sized bedrooms and is laid out over three floors and can be easily divided to provide separate accommodation for Gite or Maison d'ami opportunities if wanted. On the first floor of the property there is a large living room with feature fireplace and wood burner, a modern kitchen / diner, a separate dining room or a fifth bedroom, onto the master bedroom with ensuite. All these rooms have doors opening onto the wrap around terrace which gives panoramic views over open countryside. The house sits in private and tranquil grounds of approximately half a hectare and comes with a covered swimming pool (12m x 6m) and an integral garage. Although it is in a countryside setting, it is only a few minutes from the town of Siorac en Perigord with its amenities and train station. This property offers countryside living with all the benefits of modernity and the proximity of a good selection of amenities and transport connections.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
