Property Description

Located in Le Bouscat, close to shops, schools, transport and parks, this former hangar has been completely renovated into an architect-designed house with exceptional volumes. It offers 260 sqm of living space on a 500 sqm plot including a 120 sqm terrace and an infinity pool. Built on two levels and on a planted plot, the house, clad in Corten metal with a strong style, has had a facelift and benefits from an extension with a roof terrace.

On the ground floor, an entrance with storage leads to a first bedroom equipped with a dressing room and a bathroom. The large living room, bathed in light thanks to a cathedral-height glass roof, has a suspended Focus fireplace and opens partially onto the dining room and the perfectly equipped kitchen, the whole occupying nearly 90 sqm. Upstairs, a bright office overlooks the living room thanks to a void offering an unobstructed view.

There are also two additional bedrooms, each with a dressing room and bathroom. A walkway, crossing the living room and overlooking the garden and the entrance, leads to the majestic master suite. This has a dressing room, a bathroom and benefits from a neat and harmonious decoration. An independent apartment, with a separate entrance, completes the property.

Arranged as a duplex, it includes a living room with equipped kitchen and a large bedroom with bathroom, opening directly onto the terrace. The exterior, tastefully landscaped, offers a 120 sqm terrace with a fireplace corner, a relaxation area and a heated infinity pool, in a Balinese style.

Finally, the house offers additional services, including a laundry room, a large garage, outdoor parking spaces and a wine cellar. Brightness, generous volumes and numerous openings onto the green outdoor spaces are the key words of this family home, redesigned with taste and functionality, both in its design and decoration. As for the exterior architecture, it seduces with its contemporary lines and the choice of materials, making this ensemble an exceptional property.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
