Property Description

This former stable renovated into an unconventional dwelling is located in the heart of the historic center, in the Saint Paul district. The ground floor occupies an area of 110m2 and houses a large workshop, a bedroom of 14m2 and a laundry room.

The charm of the stone mixed with the cachet of the exposed beams and the modernism of this concrete cube housing the bedroom, give this place a unique atmosphere.

A beautiful staircase leads to a first landing which serves a bathroom and a second bedroom of 14m². The first floor opens onto a large living room, a kitchen area and a large dining room alongside a mezzanine illuminated by a beautiful skylight. A 3rd bedroom of 17m² completes this level.

The central location and the exceptional volumes of this place steeped in history give this property a sensational character in the heart of Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
