Property Description

A stone's throw from the Capucins market, this loft offers beautiful living spaces, a large garage and a west-facing terrace. It is part of a small condominium of old stone buildings completely renovated in 2011.

The large private garage with electric vehicle terminal is located on the ground floor. On the first floor, we discover the vast living room of 90 m² with high ceilings. Volume, metal and wood give an industrial but warm atmosphere to this living room entirely open onto a pretty 50 m² planted terrace facing due west.

The loft offers a surface area of 159 m² on the ground (150 m² carrez). On this level there is a laundry room, a toilet and a bathroom with bathtub and shower.

Upstairs, there are 3 bedrooms of approximately 11.5 m² with closet and air conditioning, a separate toilet, a shower room and a mezzanine space that can be used as an office space.

This loft feels like a house and has all the assets for a city life in the heart of the city!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
