Property Description

10 minutes south of Barbezieux (16). This property located on the edge of a hamlet exudes tranquility. The 240m2 of living space offers very pleasant volumes.

The day rooms include a beautiful living room facing south, a large, very convivial kitchen and, at the back, a large living room with mezzanine opening onto a huge covered terrace, the latter linking between the house and the garden.

This outdoor space conducive to relaxation also overlooks the swimming pool.

A bedroom is also on the ground floor. The first floor offers a large landing / office, two large bedrooms, one with dressing room and a bathroom. The old stable, the huge barn and a carport complete this beautiful set established on more than 6,100m².

A plot of land of 4,000m² located just in front of the house can be detached, if less land is desired. This warm and pleasant house will require some interior updating work.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
