Property Description

BARBEZIEUX (16) - In the heart of town, quiet, schools and services on foot. Renovated old house with courtyard and garage. The ground floor houses the 33 m2 garage, the boiler room/laundry room and an independent bedroom with shower room and bay window overlooking the courtyard.

This part is intended for furnished rental for young CFA students. It is possible to create a studio there. Upstairs, living room with fitted kitchen and very pleasant central island.

granite worktop. Bedroom, bathroom and lingerie on the same level. On the second floor, office on the mezzanine, attic bedroom with shower room and another bedroom accessible by another staircase.

We find in this house intimate and well partitioned spaces. It is ideal for a family. And it's in great condition

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
