Property Description

Close to Barbezieux (16) - Between Angoulême and Bordeaux - In a dominant position, this typical Charente dwelling of character was built with a symmetrical layout with a concern for elegance. On the main facade, the access driveway ends beautifully with a stone staircase surrounded by two magnificent towers which give a proud appearance to the whole. At the back, the vast buildings surround a very pleasant enclosed courtyard with swimming pool, accessible by a gate also typically Charente.

The dwelling of approximately 325 m² of living space and its seven bedrooms is in excellent condition. The beautiful living rooms benefit from a beautiful high ceiling and through light. Independent accommodation of approximately 120 m² of living space completely renovated.

This beautiful property extends over 6 hectares, largely wooded. Environment without nuisance, quiet and very easy to access. This unique property has stood the test of time while preserving its authenticity.

This is a rare opportunity to acquire an exceptional place to live. The charm of the past is harmoniously combined with contemporary features.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
