Property Description

On high ground, not isolated, with lovely unspoilt views, former farmhouse, second home since the 1960s, this 133m2 stone-built Périgordine comprises on 2 levels: Kitchen with old stone sink, dining room/lounge with fireplace, beams, exposed stonework, bedroom, bathroom. Boiler room. First floor: 2 bedrooms, bathroom.

Independent, double garage, shed, approx 50m2 and close to the house this very pretty bakehouse and bread oven.

It is surrounded by 5070m² of flat land planted with trees and a few low stone walls. The area is peaceful, with only the sound of birdsong to punctuate the silence

The first shops are 4 km away, as is the Dordogne river and an 18-hole golf course. St Cyprien is only 7 km away with all the shops and its Sunday morning market.

The plateau around the house is ideal for walking.

The roofs are in good condition, as is the interior, so it's up to you to make it 'your' home

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
