Property Description

Nestled in the heart of Caudéran, this magnificent single-story stone shop combines old-world charm with contemporary comfort. Upon entering, you'll be charmed by two beautiful bedrooms with high-quality fittings, where high ceilings and contemporary materials create a warm and authentic atmosphere.

A hallway leads to a vast living room bathed in light, enhanced by large bay windows opening onto an intimate, landscaped garden, a true haven of peace in the city center. The open-plan, fitted kitchen blends harmoniously into this welcoming space. A bathroom with double sinks and a separate toilet complete this level.

The living room benefits from beautiful materials and generous ceiling height, allowing for the creation of an elegant mezzanine, ideal for an office overlooking the living room. On the practical side, a large cellar with dual indoor/outdoor access has been cleverly converted into two separate spaces: a functional laundry room and a spacious storage area.

Ideally located just steps from schools, shops and public transport, this shop full of character offers a privileged living environment, combining character and modernity.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
