Property Description

Substantial property set out over three floors and located right in the centre of this beautiful village. The ground floor (approx 90m²) is currently set up and used for commercial / professional use and would need to be re-configured to a domestic habitational space. The 2 upper floors, in need of modernising, are currently accessed externally via the enclosed courtyard to the rear of the property but the internal staircase access, from the ground floor, could be re-opened to allow access to the upper two floors. Accommodation on the first of the upper floors consists of a large living room, kitchen / diner, utility room and WC. The top floor has two bedrooms and a bathroom. Thanks to its central location, the property is close to all the amenities, shops, bars and restaurants of the charming village St Cyprien.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
