Property Description

Located on a sought-after street between Saint-Michel and Sainte-Croix, this charming house, built on a ground floor and two levels, offers beautiful old features and is a good base for a future project.

The 92 sqm ground floor can be used for parking, a workshop, or as a liberal profession or commercial space.

The 168 sqm house is divided as follows: the first floor is accessed via a beautiful stone staircase and the living room is bathed in light overlooking the street. Beautiful original parquet flooring, a fireplace, and a nice height give this typical house a certain charm. Next, the kitchen opens onto the covered interior patio. This is followed by a large library lounge with a mezzanine at the back.

On the second and top floor, there is a mezzanine room overlooking the living room, a bedroom, a bathroom with WC, as well as an office and a bedroom overlooking the street. A cellar completes this property.

A very nice address and potential for this charming property to reinvent while preserving the old features.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
