Property Description

Located on the edge of the basin, in a quiet area, this architect house of 380m² is erected on two levels on a plot of 1200m² with heated swimming pool. The living space, conceived on the floor, benefits from a large bright and crossing room of 70m² with cathedral ceiling and open kitchen contemporary equipped high-end. It is extended by an outdoor terrace overlooking the pool and the garden with stunning views of the basin. This same level offers a superb parental suite with balcony, double dressing room and bathroom. An office with terrace and a room with room of water completes the stage. On the ground floor, an independent and functional apartment proposes a living room with kitchen and two comfortable rooms with room of water. This level also has a gym with hammam, a laundry room and a large garage. Ideally located in a privileged environment, this magnificent villa with high quality benefits enjoys stunning views of the basin.

Les honoraires TTC sont à la charge du vendeur.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
