Property Description

This property looks great Located at the entrance of a village with shops and train station, it benefits from two criteria sought by all: a garage for each house and a garden The main house, built in 1872, includes a spacious 18 m2 kitchen, a 27 m2 living room with fireplace and a toilet. Three bedrooms on the first floor, two of which are en suite. The second house has a kitchen, a bathroom and a toilet on the ground floor. On the ground floor: two bedrooms. Intimate garden at the back allowing to take advantage of the Périgourdine climate. A little elbow grease will be needed to restore this property to its former charm.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
