The property is composed of an 18th century mansion, a reception room (150 m2), a 17th century water mill in perfect working order for making flour and walnut oil manufacturer, a caretaker's house to renovate, 2 rental tourist cottages for location (gites) and other outbuildings... The whole is entirely

Its geographical location is exceptional, not far from the moto way A10, close to the free N10 Bordeaux-Angoulême, Poitiers, only a few minutes from all local shops. Its land of 1HA 60A 34CA offers a truly heavenly setting: a private reach, pleasure garden, aromatic herbs garden, century-old bamboo grove, meadows... Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
