Property Description

This magnificent architectural achievement, located on the road to Cap Ferret, near the Canon, is the result of the transformation of an old wooden cabin from the 80s by a renowned Parisian architect studio.

This real estate complex, resembling a redesigned oyster hut, is made up of commercial premises on the ground floor, rented and two one-bedroom apartments with terraces upstairs; is ideal for an investor wishing to invest in an exceptional architectural project while benefiting from an excellent return of 5%.

The floor currently rented seasonally can offer a perfect base in Cap Ferret.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
