Property Description

It is in a privileged and sought-after environment of Ornano, close to all amenities, schools and transport that this beautiful 224sqm double shop style residence is built.

The house is organized on three levels. The 1st level opens onto a beautiful entrance with storage.

It leads to a bright living room, benefiting from all the codes of bourgeois housing. In the extension there is a fitted and equipped kitchen and bathrooms as well as a first bedroom on the ground floor.

These spaces benefit from a beautiful view of the sunny 90m² garden with its heated swimming pool hidden from view. A beautiful stone staircase provides access to the second level, organized as a sleeping area serving three bedrooms including a spacious master suite with a dressing room, followed by a large bathroom.

On the top floor there are also 3 additional bedrooms with two bathrooms under the roof. A technical room, a laundry room, and a 50m² cellar complete this sublime bourgeois house in a popular area of Ornano.

This property will seduce you with the elegance of the building as well as its location close to all amenities.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
