Property Description

Close to the center of Cestas village, this pretty single-storey villa on the second line offers beautiful volumes and large functional living spaces.

The large entrance leads to the main room composed of a cozy living room around the imposing fireplace, a TV lounge near the wood stove and a dining room. The high ceilings and the arched French windows bathe this large living space facing south over the swimming pool with light. The fully equipped kitchen is accessible from the dining room and the entrance corridor, which leads to a pantry and a laundry room/workshop of around thirty square meters.

The sleeping area is located in a wing of the villa and is separated by a long corridor with storage space. There we discover three beautiful bedrooms with their respective bathrooms, the most spacious of which is at the end of the wing as a master suite. Another room at the entrance to the house can be used as a fourth bedroom or office.

An existing greenhouse with a nice volume can make it possible to create a magnificent tropical winter garden. Finally, two outdoor spaces allow vehicles to be parked on the plot.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
