Property Description

This 200m² residence is nestled in the heart of a wooded park of more than 7000sqm. The numerous pine trees, the private water source and the pond add a touch of serenity, creating a true haven of peace. Once through the door, the house reveals a welcoming entrance, and serves on either side, the living room as well as the American kitchen equipped with a central island.

The magnificent winter garden, heated by a wood stove, overlooks the garden, offering panoramic views of the park. Two adjacent terraces complete this space.

The sleeping area is made up of three bedrooms and a bathroom with double sinks. A lower level leads to the laundry room and a space converted into an additional bedroom with additional bathroom.

A large garage completes the package. Located between two seas, this property is close to essential shops. Bordeaux is accessible in around twenty minutes via Latresne or via the A62 a few kilometers away.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
