Property Description

Pleasant perigourdine-style stone house set in calm hamlet with lovely views close to all amenities. Renovated throughout, it is ready-to-move into. This cosy gem comprises 5 ground floor bedrooms, living room, kitchen, bathroom, separate WC, all overlooking a pretty terrace from where you can admire the surrounding countryside. Upstairs, you will find a spacious and bright room which offers multiple possibilities for use (master bedroom, games room etc...), and a large (90m²) which provides further renovation potential, as does the 50 m² basement area. There is also a separate piece of constructible land with a huge barn that offers extra scope for a gite or guest house.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
