Property Description

This former 300 m2 factory, ideally located in the heart of Bordeaux, at the foot of Porte Cailhau, is to be rehabilitated in order to create a real loft with patio and garage. Developed on 3 levels of approximately 100m2 each, the ceiling height, exposed beams, and volumes are the characteristics of this ideal place offering numerous development possibilities. A sumptuous living room will be created, structured around an interior patio and a superb overhead glass roof. On the night side, the creation of three bedrooms can be considered, as well as a gym, office, cellar and garage. All exterior work will be carried out by the owner (façade, roof and frames), only the interior fittings work will be carried out by future buyers. This future loft is located in the heart of the historic center of Bordeaux, close to the tramway and the quays. Blank DPE.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
