Property Description

There are not many of these charming old farmhouses left.

I

A part of it has already been restored as a house with a nice living room on the first floor and 3 bedrooms on the first floor. Beams and stone, of course

The building continues with an old wine storehouse, not restored but with many possibilities.

An old tobacco drying house of about 100 m2 (in good condition) is added to the ensemble.

A small barn to restore completes the whole.

Quiet but not isolated place with a nice view. (nearest shops at 7 minutes.

Land of a little more than one hectare. Possibility of acquiring 2 additional hectares (horses?).

A real little piece of paradise

3D visit available.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of ours agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

For more information take a look at our buying guide, our french mortgage and euro currency exchange pages.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.
C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of myfrench-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them. S. and L. BROWN
