Property Description

Ideally located in the charming town of Saint Gervais, just 30 minutes from Bordeaux, this former 185m² presbytery has undergone a complete renovation and has a 600m² garden offering a peaceful outdoor space.

From the entrance, a superb master suite opens to the left, followed by a living room where the solid parquet floors, the original fireplace and the cement tiles create an atmosphere full of charm. The fully equipped kitchen, bathed in light thanks to its large custom-made glass roof, is a real highlight. The right wing of the house houses a laundry room and bedroom, providing a practical layout. Upstairs, a landing leads to three bedrooms with carefully renovated old fittings, sharing an elegant bathroom.

This residence is completed by a healthy cellar of 60m² and a double garage. Just 4km from Saint André de Cubzac, this house combines the calm of the countryside and the immediate proximity to amenities.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
