Property Description

Located in a quiet spot between Lannemezan and Castelnau-Magnoac is this spacious and charming home offering 200m² of living space with 9000m² of grounds. It has three ample bedrooms and numerous outbuildings.

This bucolic location is surrounded by organic agriculture.

The ground floor is comprised of a generous entrance hall of 15m², a 17m² fitted kitchen, a 25m² living room with wood burner and a 22m² sitting room, also with wood burner.

A passageway leads to a 5m² washroom, a toilet, a 14m² larder and a 25m² wine press.

Upstairs are three bedrooms (20m², 23m² & 27m²) as well as a 14m² study and a 19m² space currently serving as storage room.

Outside, there is a covered yard and numerous outbuildings including a hay barn, livestock barn, henhouse and pigsty. There is a well which you can use for watering your plants.

Around half of the windows are double glazed. The roof is covered in tile. There is no central heating, only the wood burners. The property is served by an individual sewage system.

You will be just over 5 mins from Castelnau-Magnoac, 20 mins from Lannemezan, 45 mins from Tarbes and airport and 2h from Toulouse and airport.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
