Property Description

Ten minutes from the city center, the exceptional environment of this house surprises with its originality. With a view of a 2-hectare lake and the possibility of walking around it, nature is omnipresent and preserved. The house of approximately 216 m², with optimal insulation, benefits from a very good energy rating. Its high ceilings, its beautiful volumes, and its numerous rooms give it strong development potential for different life projects.

On the ground floor, an entrance leads to a recently equipped kitchen, communicating with a large living-dining room with an insert, and direct access to the 70m² terrace with its wisteria and magnificent view.

Three single-storey bedrooms complete this level, as well as an office, a bathroom, a toilet, a laundry room and a 40m² insulated garage.

Upstairs, four bedrooms, a bathroom with toilet, a games room, and storage spaces in the attics offer lots of design possibilities.

A 60m² outbuilding can be used as a garage or workshop, or be converted into a gîte.

In addition, a building part of the plot can be suitable for swimming pools, and another part can be divided.

Close to schools, shops, in a very quiet environment.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
