Property Description

Charming town house, ideally located in a semi-pedestrian street, with access by foot to all the nearby amenities, cafés and restaurants that Perpignan has to offer.

This house offers spacious volumes laid out as follows:

Ground floor: a spacious room that can be used as commercial premises, or as a big entrance.

First floor: a bedroom with a separate toilet and laundry room.

Second floor: a living room with pellet stove.

Third floor: a dining room with kitchen and shower room.

Fourth and top floor: a second bedroom.

Certain renovation works are needed such as replacing the single glazed windows, electricity and general refreshment, making this an ideal investment opportunity to create a home with rental potential in the vibrant city of Perpignan.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
