Property Description

This remarkable and unique property consists of a beautifully preserved 19th-century chateau that has been recently renovated throughout. It also features a garage for your vehicles, a park with a splendid swimming pool and complete privacy, a stone building with four renovated independent apartments that are currently rented out, and three large stone and wood-framed hangars for all your agricultural equipment. The hangars are in good condition.

The property spans 121 hectares and is contiguous. It comprises 70 hectares of AOP vineyards, 19 hectares of fields (including 5 hectares located adjacent to the park and one of the hangars, suitable for horses), and 32 hectares of woodland with various tree species. The estate currently produces AOP "Malepère" wine and is a tranquil sanctuary nestled in the foothills of the Malepère region. Additionally, all the necessary agricultural equipment for managing the vineyard is available for purchase as an option for approximately €600,000. The château holds fantastic potential for further development.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
