Property Description

* PRICE REDUCED * Stunning character town house offering a habitable surface of just over 136m² but with just under 300m² of total usable space.

The foundations of the house date back to the 13th Century and whilst the property has been tastefully renovated with noble materials such as wooden beams, polished concrete, stone walls, the charm and authenticity has been preserved, but enhanced with modern features such as reversible air conditioning in each room.

This beautiful house offers a 45m² courtyard with its century-old orange tree, a bright 48m² living room with pellet burner opening onto the long balcony with a clear view of the city of Perpignan, a functional bespoke kitchen in polished concrete then two bedrooms with their own bathroom.

In addition, the house has a charming 1-bed apartment that can be independent from the house, ideal renting out for holiday lets or to welcome friends and family, or it could be knocked through to the main house to create a large additional master suite for example.

The fully finished basement area offers many additional opportunities.

Unique on the market!

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
