Property Description

Located in the famous Hôtel de Pierre, renowned for being the most beautiful private mansion in Toulouse, this resolutely atypical 135sqm Carrez apartment has been rehabilitated in the old kitchens by its owners in a loft spirit. The main volume is organized on a large 65sqm open surface and accommodates the living room, kitchen and dining room. All of the apartment's ceilings are vaulted and highlight the briquette arcades. The openings to the outside of the living room give a pleasant view of a green garden overlooking the Garonne. A second large adjoining volume of some 35sqm allows the development of this space into a second living room, bedroom or even library. Directly linked to this space, the large bedroom surprises once again with its high ceilings. The astonishing galleries of approximately 180sqm all in brick, directly adjoining the apartment, offer significant development potential. A whole range of possibilities can be studied for this space. Possibility of parking. Property subject to co-ownership status - 18 lots - monthly co-ownership charges: EUR130/month. Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
