Property Description

Located at the end of a cul-de-sac on the outskirts of Auch, the capital of Gers with all necessary amenities such as shops, schools, colleges, high schools, supermarkets, and hospitals, this delightful 170 m² villa features a 3,400 m² garden with a pool and views over the fields.

The bright living area opens onto a spacious terrace with a barbecue, accessed through large bay windows. The modern kitchen is fully equipped, and a cozy lounge with a fireplace insert is also open to the living room. The sleeping area includes two bedrooms and a bathroom, plus another bedroom with its own shower room, and an office on the mezzanine.

The house offers a double garage with electric doors and two storage rooms that can easily be converted into additional living space or a studio.

The garden is landscaped with trees and flowers, and the large terrace around the pool offers complete privacy.

This is a wonderful home to enjoy year-round.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
