Property Description

Tucked away on a peaceful lane, this delightful renovated farmhouse from 1792 is the perfect escape for vacations or permanent living. The gem of this property is its enormous terrace, ideal for soaking up the sun and enjoying the great outdoors. The terrace features a swimming pool and overlooks the picturesque rolling hills, with a breathtaking view of a nearby château.

Step inside, and you'll find a spacious master bedroom, along with additional sleeping accommodations, perfect for hosting family and guests. The inviting living spaces are bathed in natural light, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere. The garden provides a serene backdrop for relaxation and tranquillity.

The swimming pool area promises endless enjoyment, while the terrace is perfect for al fresco dining and entertaining. And if that's not enough, there's even an outdoor covered room, allowing you to enjoy the outdoors all year round.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
