Property Description

This charming 19th-century former sheepfold has been fully renovated and offers high-end features across 260m² of living space. It is a home illuminated with charm that invites sharing and conviviality, with potential for further expansion.

The ground floor boasts generous volumes, unfolding from the spacious entrance that leads to the various areas of the house.

The magnificent 90m² living room is bathed in light through its large bay windows, offering numerous layout possibilities and a constant spectacle of the surrounding nature and breathtaking sunsets.

The adjacent kitchen, complete with a dining area, a comfortable pantry, and double access to the terrace, complements the living space perfectly.

Accessible via double doors from the living room or from the hallway of the sleeping area, the approximately 50m² master suite also enjoys a southern-facing wooded view. It features a comfortable walk-in closet and a spa-like bathroom with a picture window opening to a verdant setting. The second bedroom is also equipped with its own bathroom.

In the sleeping area, you will also find a well-appointed laundry room with access to the approximately 50m² garage.

Two twin bedrooms with their respective bathrooms constitute the upstairs area, accessible from the entrance hall.

The stroll through the park, just over 2 hectares, reveals multiple attractions: a strategically placed pool, a terrace crowned with an elegant "Eiffel-style" iron pergola, play and relaxation spots under centuries-old trees, and fruit trees.

By car:

5 minutes: Montauban-Sud toll, TER station to Toulouse, school group, small shops, local services, community and sports complex, a restaurant, an equestrian center, and a farm offering fresh local products.

15 minutes to Montauban city center.

30 minutes to Toulouse-Blagnac Airport.

This property is a true haven of peace, an atypical gem promising an unforgettable experience. It is a place where every day is an invitation to relaxation and well-being.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
