Property Description

Located in the heart of the Gascon countryside, in a peaceful and secluded setting, this beautiful house in need of renovation offers sublime views over the valleys and hills of Gers.

The 160 m² house comprises an entrance hall, a large kitchen with a wood stove, a living room, one bedroom, a bathroom and a shower room, and a utility room on the ground floor. Upstairs, there are three additional bedrooms.

The adjoining outbuildings provide an opportunity to expand this space or create new ones, totaling 240 m². The barn measures 180 m², and an old pigsty can be removed or transformed.

At the back of the house is a beautiful wooded area, and for enjoyable moments with family and friends, there is a shaded pétanque court.

The roofs have always been maintained, some of the windows are double-glazed, and a well supplies water for irrigation.

A great project for someone with multiple possibilities in a dream location

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
