Property Description

Located in the heart of the village, within walking distance of amenities, just 15 minutes from the beaches, old winegrower's house of 156m² partially renovated, converted into a family house with 6 bedrooms, a courtyard hidden from view and a cellar.

The ground floor consists of an entrance, a bright living room of 36m² with stone walls, high ceilings and fireplace, an open kitchen, access to the courtyard of 25m² with workshop and laundry area and to the cellar, a bedroom, a bathroom with WC.

The 1st level has 3 bedrooms, a bathroom, a separate toilet.

The 2nd floor offers two bedrooms and an attic with the potential to create a terrace.

This large house is ideal as a large family home or as a guest room.

In the heart of the Narbonnaise Regional Natural Park, Roquefort des Corbières is a village ideally located between sea, scrubland and mountains, starting point for numerous hikes and walks. There are local shops (bakery, grocery store, restaurants).

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
