Property Description

Located in a quiet village less than 10 mins from Lannemezan is this splendid property (1.2ha) with a canal, offering a comfortable dwelling, a second house and a mill to renovate as well as vast outbuildings. This rare property combines original charm with the potential for a tourism project to flourish, in a natural, pretty setting with its canal bordering the property.

You will fall under the spell of this lovely ensemble with its canal and waterfall at the entrance to the property. The canal offers numerous possibilities. You will have a plentiful supply of water for your vegetable garden and other activities.

Once restored, the old mill with its machinery will augment the flavour and potential of this estate. Attached, the old sawmill has vast outbuildings, perfect for simply using as storage or for a professional project.

The main house is spacious and benefits from lots of natural light bathing its rooms. Totalling 138m², there is a 29m² living room with wood burner, a 12m² open kitchen, a 12m² larder and a toilet.

A wooden staircase leads up to a spacious landing, 18m², serving three comfortable bedrooms (12m² & two of 13m²), a 7m² bathroom and a toilet.

A covered terrace is accessed from the living room where you will enjoy meals with friends and family whilst enjoying the view of the garden with mature trees. It is a perfect spot for relaxing, enjoying the fresh air and the murmuring of the canal.

On crossing a second covered terrace, you will have the unique opportunity to restore a second dwelling. Measuring 130m², it is perfect for transforming into a residence for welcoming friends, family or paying guests.

Its traditional hallway serves a 21m² bedroom at the garden level of the house. It also serves a 13m² living room, a 22m² dining room, an 11m² kitchen looking onto the canal and a 4m² washroom. Back to the hall, where there is a toilet and a wooden staircase leading up to two 22m² bedrooms.

The outbuilding and the mill to renovate complete the charm of this property. The mill should be restored whilst respecting its history and conserving its original elements that make it unique. The outbuildings offer a huge surface to use as you wish. The current configuration would allow several living spaces to be created.

A vast agricultural hangar completes this property which has strong potential and where you can let your imagination run.

Perfect for starting a tourism project.

Don't miss this opportunity to acquire a property marrying charm, comfort and investment potential.

The roof is covered in tile. Windows are PVC framed and double glazed. The property is served by an individual sewage system. Heating is currently supplied by oil.

You will be less than 10 mins from Lannemezan, 30 mins from Tarbes and Tarbes-Lourdes-Pyrenees airport, 1h25 from Toulouse, 2h from the Atlantic coast and 1h30 from Spain.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
