Property Description

On the border of the Lot, in the pretty countryside of Quercy Blanc, a path lined with fruit trees leads us to this charming residence. Dating from the 18th century, this stone building of approximately 189sqm has been renovated to preserve all its charm, enhanced by the most careful decoration. You will fall in love with it as you climb the few steps that lead to the main room and its cathedral ceiling, with its large living room and open kitchen. Featuring a majestic fireplace and a shaded terrace, this space will satisfy your moments of life in all seasons. The lower part of this room accommodates a master suite with a bathroom with toilet and dressing room. Another part of the house, which can be made completely independent or not, is currently used as a gîte. It is composed of a charming lounge-boudoir with a wood stove and a dining room. Below, a bright kitchen has a closed and independent terrace access to the garden, and a large bathroom is located on the side of this room. Upstairs, a landing allowing to accommodate an extra bed serves three attic bedrooms, one of which has a toilet, a sink, and air conditioning. A few outbuildings complete these volumes, such as a small chapel, a wine cellar, and a magnificent equipped summer kitchen. A covered garage can shelter a car and communicates with the laundry room. ENERGY CLASS C / CLIMATE CLASS D Estimated average amount of annual energy expenditure for standard use, established from 2021 energy prices: between EUR1913 and EUR2143 Information on the risks to which this property is exposed is available on the Géorisques website:

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.

Testimonials

my-french-house was by far the best online guide I found – and I trawled them all – to buying a house in France. It answers all your first questions practically before you've thought to ask.

C. BAUER – Sunday Times

Our French property purchase and move to France were made so easy with the help and assistance of my-french-house.com. They are a committed and professional business – we highly recommend them.
