Property Description

It is in the popular district of Pech-David that this architect-designed house of some 310m2 is located on a plot of 2640 m2, designed to take advantage of the outdoors.

The entrance leads to the first floor which accommodates the living room with multiple openings, in order to benefit from daylight at any time of the day, and from the view of the garden and the terraces. The high ceilings also bring breath to the room. Several spaces have been worked on this volume in order to optimize the uses of each corner: library corner, TV corner, dining corner. A section of wall on the view side offers large openings so you can enjoy the view of Toulouse from your living room. A fireplace sits in the middle of the room providing a cozy feel for winter evenings. The adjoining kitchen offers plenty of storage space, and a utility room for practicality. A master suite is available on the same level.

Upstairs, an office that can easily be used in a bedroom has a large solarium terrace from which the 180-degree panorama of Toulouse is evident. On the lower level, a corridor leads to 3 bedrooms which share a large bathroom. An independent studio with 1 bedroom and a kitchen living room can be attached to the main house.

The exterior offers a large swimming pool which is housed in the middle of the plant and mineral arrangements, directly accessible from the living room and the kitchen. The vegetation is abundant and brings an extra soul to the general atmosphere of the home. The garden was designed by arranging 3 plateaus joined together, thus being able to take advantage of the entire land and the view.

A 58 m² garage can accommodate approximately 3 vehicles.

A wine cellar, a laundry room, and a workshop complete the home.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
