Property Description

Located halfway between Cartoucherie and Lardenne, in Toulouse, this renowned architect's house was built in the 1970s and offers approximately 270sqm. The property is part of an architectural environment of 11 houses including this one, the most imposing. From the outside, the tone is set, the visionary design of Bernard Bachelot impresses. The entrance naturally opens onto the living space bathed in light and with a marked identity. The first volume of 110sqm is dedicated to conviviality. Bold architecture blends perfectly with noble materials. Marble and different types of wood contrast the Roche Bobois staircase, the true centerpiece of the house. Several lounges offer varied atmospheres. One of them, slightly below, more intimate, has an impressive fireplace. The kitchen naturally extends these spaces. Different green patios and the garden provide a natural link with the outdoors. The sleeping area is located at the end of the house offering a spacious master suite as well as 4 other bedrooms. An office is ideally located on the ground floor. Upstairs, the guest suite gives access to the impressive roof terrace. This architectural work marked its time, a renovation will allow design lovers to mark theirs. ## Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
