Property Description

Superb, character village house dating from the end of the 18th century combining modern comfort with original features such as terracotta floors, wood beams and beautiful wooden doors throughout the house.

Situated in the quiet hamlet of Les Hostalets this mid-terraced house is set over various levels as follows:

Ground floor - the entrance hall leads on to a spacious living/dining area, with terracotta floors and open Catalan fireplace. To the rear a country kitchen which leads on to a secluded terrace to enjoy the open views of the countryside and mountains beyond. Access from here via some external steps to the garden and pool.

First floor - a spacious landing leads to 2 good-sized bedrooms, both with ensuite shower rooms and one having numerous fitted wardrobes.

Second floor - an impressive, light and bright master suite offering a 38m² bedroom plus mezzanine area, a dressing room (or children's bedroom) plus shower room and a sauna.

The garden level - steps lead down from the kitchen terrace to an extra 25m² of space which leads on to the lower garden and pool area.

The garden is planted with mature shrubs and trees, plus the 12m x 2.5m lap pool is rare for this type of property.

A magical property located in the foothills of the Pyrenees, ideal for nature lovers who are looking to live away from the hustle and bustle yet only a short drive to the vibrant market town of Thuir and a 40 minute drive from the sea and from the Spanish border.

EPC rating not eligible.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
