Property Description

Between ALBI and RODEZ, this old mill with over 450 sqm of living space stands out for its potential, offering a unique living environment.

Divided into three dwellings, it allows for a variety of uses, including the possibility of a rental project.

Between the two gîtes, the main house rises on three levels. It combines modern comfort and character. Its kitchen benefits from a dining island and plenty of storage space. A bedroom completes the ground floor. Currently used as a living room, a beautiful room with an open fireplace offers a surface area of over 80 sqm. It benefits from a separate entrance, allowing this space to be divided and used as a yoga or dance room, etc.

Upstairs, three bedrooms share a bathroom, while a master suite is nestled under the roof.

The two gîtes, with their distinctive charm, complete this ensemble.

The first, in loft style, offers a cozy space.

The second, meanwhile, consists of two en-suite bedrooms and an additional room currently used as a dormitory.

The whole is spread over an adjoining plot of more than 2 hectares, fully fenced, decorated with a reservoir offering a panorama inspired by Canadian landscapes, changing with the seasons.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
