Property Description

Located between Lannemezan and Montrejeau, in Anères, this structure to renovate will charm lovers of atypical properties. Old mill with 4 bedrooms and access to a river. Plot of 3400 m².

More than just an imposing structure, it's a part of the heritage of the Comminges, so you would become the owner if you fall under the charm of this property.

Bordering a private canal giving onto the river Neste, this property offers a quiet and authentic environment.

The entrance hall gives onto a big living room (40 m²) with an imposing fireplace. To the right of the entrance hall is the kitchen (25 m²) with a door that opens onto a small terrace that faces due south.

The staircase in the entrance hall leads to the first landing (5 m²) which gives onto two big bedrooms (21 m² & 23 m²) on each side. One has a shower-room and the other has a WC with a toilet and washbasin.

A second flight of stairs leads to two more bedrooms, both 21 m² and with a space that could be converted into shower-rooms.

Finally, the third level is the attic and it is suitable for conversion.

The house is very bright thanks to its many windows.

Joinery is single glazing and all the shutters on the ground floor are metal and have locks.

Heating only provided by the fireplace. Electric hot-water heater.

Drainage connected to a septic tank.

The slate tiled roof needs to be overhauled.

On the plot of 3400 m² there is a demolished barn and the ruins of an old structure.

On the far side of the land is access to the river Neste where you can enjoy freshness during hot summer days. The property is situated on the path of a by-pass canal of the river Neste, which was previously used for the mill in order to spin, and the vestiges are still present.

Being close to the river and to hiking trails, this is the ideal spot for creating a guest house.

Located 14 minutes from Montréjeau; 18 min from Lannemezan; 45 min from Tarbes; 50 min from Bagnères-de-Luchon; 1 hr 25 min from Toulouse.

Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
