Property Description

In the historic centre of LISLE SUR TARN, the façade of this large building gives no hint of what awaits us once we pass through the front door. For lovers of stone houses, love at first sight is guaranteed. No less than 370sqm are spread over three levels. On the ground floor, the entrance naturally leads to the living areas. A 55sqm living/dining room with its wood stove has several direct accesses to the outside. In its continuity, the kitchen-diner also has independent access to the garden. On the other side, the entrance also leads to the main staircase which serves the first floor. This houses part of the sleeping area of the house. Here, the space is divided between four bedrooms, and as many bathrooms. The second level, accessible from two staircases located at each end of the house, houses three additional bedrooms as well as two bathrooms. The charm is undeniable thanks to the floor tiles and stone walls. Each room benefits from a beautiful open view of the perfectly maintained garden. The exterior of this house is undoubtedly one of its major assets. The plot consists of an intimate covered terrace, two other terraces sheltered by pergolas (one made of wood, the other made of metal). You can also enjoy a large open-air terrace area this time, accessible from the living rooms. A generously sized swimming pool in the center of the beautifully landscaped and wooded garden also contributes to making this place unique. A real gem that is unsuspected from the small alley. The contrast there is also striking. A truly beautiful discovery that will leave no one indifferent. Exterior work has recently been carried out to make this garden a real cocoon, where serenity, tranquility and relaxation are the key words. With its various interior staircases, its independent accesses, its number of bedrooms and bathrooms, as well as its privileged location in the center of Lisle sur Tarn, this house can perfectly lend itself to a gîte activity or to the happiness of a large family. Buying French Property Just Got Easier...

The purchase process typically starts once you've visited a property with one of our agents and you made an offer on a property. Once your offer has been accepted, the property will come off the market and our local bilingual expert will liaise with you and the notaire. The compulsory searches are at the charge of the owner / vendor and are carried out at this stage.

You would have already been informed about the property taxes and legal fees (that incl. the stamp duty). The agency fees are already included in the listed price on this document, there's no premium for the superior service we offer. You don't have to pay the deposit until the 'pre-contract' has been signed, and the 10 days calling off period has expired. It takes an average of three months to buy a property in France.
